

RULES AND REGULATIONS For cse event

GENERAL RULES:

1. Contest is open to everyone with a knack of programming.
2. Contest will consist of multiple rounds, with participants progressing in every round
3. Every round will be time bound and all participants will finish their given program within the given time.
4. Every participant will be ranked as per the time they take to solve the problem or the successful code submission they do.
5. Ties will be broken by other parameters that the participant shows during their compilation of code.

ROUNDS:

1. First round will consist 2-3 questions on basic problem solving. participants can use any programming language that they are comfortable with.
2. Second round will consist 1-2 question which will have higher difficulty level.

Eligibility:

Anyone with prior knowledge of coding or problem solving.

Disqualification:

1. Violation of code of conduct at any stage of tournament will lead to straight disqualification for participants.
2. Not complying with the terms listed here.
3. Providing false information to become eligible for the prizes.
4. Misbehaving with other participants or contest coordinators at any stage of tournament.
5. Getting involved in any malicious activity at any stage of tournament.
6. Trying to create chaos while commencing the competition or using content unfitting for the competition.